Conservation and sustainable use of wildlife resources, including fight against Poaching and wildlife trafficking
Background

• The perennial funding crunch which results in ineffective enforcement of conservation laws and measures;

• The transformation of the poaching crisis from a simple and relatively “manageable” status to a criminal and intense transnational organized crime;

• The effective engagement and participation of indigenous and local communities to the sustainable management of wildlife resources
Objective of the Stream

This Stream aims to share lessons from the experiences a number of protected areas to:

- INTEGRATE CONSERVATION INVESTMENTS IN NATIONAL ECONOMIC PLANNING;

- REFLECTING ON AN EFFECTIVE FUNDING MODEL FOR ADDRESSING THE ISSUES OF LACKING SUSTAINABLE FINANCIAL MEANS TO SUPPORT THE PAS.

- DEVELOP SUCCESSFUL ECO-TOURISM IN CENTRAL AFRICA, BY REFERRING TO LESSONS LEARNED IN RWANDA AND OTHER PARTS OF THE GREAT LAKES REGION;
Objective of the Stream

• Encourage the participation of adjacent local rural communities in the regulation of the use of wildlife resources in buffer zones around PAs;

• Understand ways in which indigenous communities can be integrated in the protection of wildlife within PAs.

• Serve as micro-zones of governance and security
